“Brick red color. Aromas of spiced berries, castelvetro olives, roasted nuts, and hint of waxy honeycomb with a silky, vibrant, dryish medium body and a seamless, captivating, medium-length sundried tomato, chestnuts, and earthy roasted root vegetables finish with a suggestion of oak. This is a very good example of classically styled Chianti, with an abundance of savory herbs that makes for a bottle that rewards time, and will be wonderful with food.”
